Notice regarding Dotonbori Festival of Meat-Cooking Stalls

Food Creation Works, a company in the Laox group, opened Dotonbori Festival of Meat-Cooking Stalls in Dotonbori, Osaka on August 9th 2018 (Thursday).

Osaka is known as the food capital of Japan where authentic Japanese cuisine has been handed down from generation to generation since the ancient times. Recently, the city is attracting a rapidly growing number of foreign tourists because of its ideal location close to Kyoto and Nara, two of the most popular tourist destinations in Japan, and increased services by low cost carriers. 11.11 million foreign tourists visited Osaka last year, about an 18% increase from a year earlier, surpassing the growth rate of Tokyo, which accepted 13.26 million foreign tourists in 2017, an year-on-year increase of about 14% (according to the estimated number of foreign tourists who visited Osaka, published by Osaka Convention & Tourist Bureau).

We have opened Dotonbori Festival of Meat-Cooking Stalls, an eating and drinking place where diners can enjoy meat dishes to their total satisfaction in Osaka's Dotonbori area known for its superb restaurants. Our new eatery will entertain diners with the ambience and food that remind them of old good Japan once seen in Dotonbori, a traditional shrine festival, and a trusted and loved local meat shop.

Horse meat sashimi, fried meat, fried meat on skewers, vegetables, various side dishes, rice and noodle are served as well.
