~Sijang Dakalbi in Shinokubo, Tokyo, hugely popular as the birthplace of “cheese Dakalbi”, expands into Namba Dotonbori, Osaka~

Food Creation Works Co., Ltd., a Laox group company, is opening Sijang Dakalbi Namba Dotonbori, which offers Korean cuisine including Cheese Dakalbi, currently a big favorite of Japanese ladies.

Cheese Dakalbi is a Korean style hot plate dish that gives you the rich taste of cheese and sweet yet spicy chicken. It is now one of the trendiest foods in Japan. Sijang Dakalbi in Shinokubo, Tokyo, under whose guidance Sijang Dakalbi Nambadotonbori opens, is known as the birthplace of Cheese Dakalbi and so popular that you would have to wait in line for up to 2.5 hours to enter.

In addition to Cheese Dakalbi, Sijang Dakalbi Namba Dotonbori's cheese-themed menu includes “UFO Chicken” that lets diners enjoy four types of chicken with cheese, and “Osaka Cheese Fondue”, a dish you never see outside Namba Dotonbori that is a cheese-draped version of Tako-yaki and Dote-yaki. They are all incredibly “Instagramable” and “Youtubable”.

Along with dishes featuring cheese, a variety of foods are offered at the new restaurant such as

* “Korean Style Chilled Tofu: silky-textured tofu flavored with gochujang-based sauce made in house, several spices, and Korean sea weed in a perfect harmony

* “Explosive Potato Salad”: combination of Mayqueen potato grown in Hokkaido and steamed for two hours, red onion sweetened by thorough stir frying, and unbelievably mouthwatering bacon and many more.

Please visit Sijang Dakalbi Nambadotonbori and enjoy authentic Cheese Dakalbi and a rich variety of Korean dishes.
