

[Follow-up report regarding the new coronavirus outbreak] Laox Dotonbori store handed out surgical masks.

Since the outbreak of the new coronavirus occurred and its effect began to grow, Laox Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as “we”) has taken various measures including forming an crisis management committee and export of urgently needed products such as surgical masks.

As surgical masks have remained in short supply in Japan as well, Laox Dotonbori store handed out surgical masks to customers who were not wearing them on March 1, 2020 (Sunday) in an effort to keep a secure and comfortable shopping environment.

We will continue to closely monitor the development of the new coronavirus outbreak and promptly take necessary measures in order to protect the health of both our customers and employees and maintain a secure and comfortable shopping environment.
